

Cambridge International School, Mohal, Kullu
Curriculum, 2021-22
Class- III & IV
Subject – Fine Arts Curriculum

Month	Content	Methodology	Learning Outcomes	Assessment
March	Elements of art. Co-relate with Maths.	Students will be given a live demo in the class.	Students will be able to understand the concept of art and able to draw different lines, shapes and shades	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
April	Study of shapes. Co-relate with Maths.	Students will be asked to differentiate the various shapes, a demo will be given in the class.	Students will understand the concept of shapes.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
May	Make flower with pencil colors. Co-relate with E.V.S.	A demo will be given in the classroom on how to use the pencil color.	Students will be able to learn the use of pencil colors and combination of colors.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
June	Different types of landscape study. Co-relate with S.St.	A demo will be given in the class.	Students will be able to learn different shapes of lands like mountains, forests, etc. Students will be recall a landscape and draw in their Art files	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
July	Making different types of houses. Co-relate with Architect and designing.	Various types of houses will be drawn on the board during the class.	Students will understand the concept of house building and its shapes and shades.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
August	Different types of object work. Co-relate with Maths.	A demo will be given of the class.	The students will be able to learn the fundamentals of drawing, through different objects.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
September	Study about nature. Co-relate with social science and science.	Students will be asked to imagine or think about nature and choose one best thing, draw it in their art file, a demo will be given for the same to the students.	The students be able to improve their imagination through observing the nature and different seasons.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
October	Drawing vegetables and fruits. Co-relate with agriculture and E.V.S.	Teacher will give a demo of the same to the students.	Students will be able to draw vegetables and fruits and understand the color, size and shape.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.
November	Drawing birds and animals. Co-relate with science.	Teacher will give a demo of the same to the students.	Students will be able to draw animals and birds. The will understand the shapes, size, color.	Students will present their work in the class in their art file.